Admirers of the Serena range will notice a distinct return to the more classic theme with fixtures and fittings reminiscent of a country cottage.

A new kitchen Dorma has opened out the roofline and brings light flooding in. There is additional storage with units separating the lounge from the cooking space but still keeping it open plan.

Tailored upholstery in a beautiful chenille fabric has been teamed up with a striking accent chair adding a touch of luxury. The elegant fireplace purely adds to the charm.

With a glamorous master bedroom complete with an en-suite bathroom, this is definitely somewhere to relax and unwind. Equally the twin bedroom is well-appointed and has a sizeable dressing table next to the wardrobe. The Serena range stands out with its Georgian windows and French doors but simply has so much more to offer besides.
