The Atlas Status is a light and spacious home with a contemporary feel. Full of practical elements such as a coat cupboard and freestanding breakfast island, this holiday home also features front aspect doors and an en-suite bath with shower over.

The kitchen with its island drawer unit features a large integrated fridge freezer, oven and grill with freestanding dining table and upholstered designer chairs – all finished in dark walnut.

The stunning walnut finish continues into the living room with its contemporary furniture and exquisite soft furnishings.

The flame effect glass fronted fire complete with remote control creates an impressive focal feature.
