Atlas Image

The Atlas Image offers a great combination of comfort, practicality, and space. Set up for easy living, it makes an ideal retreat for anyone looking to escape the everyday and unwind in peaceful surroundings.

You enter through a side hallway where there's a useful built-in bench with storage and coat hooks, practical to remove shoes and jackets after a day outdoors. Just off the hallway is the open-plan kitchen and dining area. This modern space is fitted with ample cupboard storage and includes a dining table that seats four comfortably. A skylight above brings in extra natural light, creating a bright and pleasant environment for cooking and mealtimes. The kitchen is fully equipped with a fridge freezer, microwave, and a five-ring gas hob with oven below.

The living area has large dual-aspect windows and sliding patio doors. A spacious three-seater sofa, which also functions as a sofa bed, sits alongside two matching armchairs, all arranged around a contemporary gas fireplace set within tasteful tongue and groove panelling.

Down the hallway the twin bedroom includes good storage options and a wardrobe and is located next to a bright, well-ventilated shower room with a Velux window. At the back of the holiday home, the main bedroom features a built-in wardrobe, a dressing table positioned by a side window to maximise natural light, and a private en-suite bathroom complete with a full-sized bath – an ideal spot to soak and relax.

The Atlas Image offers the perfect escape from the stresses of daily life, providing a relaxing and welcoming atmosphere
